

UNIVERSITY OF GUYANA

INTERNAL UG COMMUNICATION UPDATE # 12 - Work in Safe Mode continues

Please note that the University of Guyana (UG) remains in safe mode until further notice. Work remains online for everyone, but essential workers will receive direct instructions regarding their return directly from their supervisors.

It is not envisaged that a return will be possible within the next 2 weeks. Please continue to check the University's official sites HRMIS and UG website for official updates.

We urge you to continue to pay attention to your immune health and personal protection by following strictly instructions for masking, physical distancing, and hand and body washing.
